Book Reviews:—Cont'd
Year book of pathology and clinical pathology (Karsmer and Sanford, ed.), 263
Branchial cleft cyst, neonatal asphyxia due to (Scott et al.), 774
Breast feeding (Stone and Bakwin), 660 successfully established during third post-partum week on self-regulating feeding program, case history of (Simsarian and Miale), 295
Bronchiectasis, prospects for prevention of (Finke), 29
Bronchitis, chronic, prospects for prevention of (Finke), 29
Brucellosis (Blattner), 668

C

Cardiac and vascular anomalies, two unusual (Wurtz and Powell), 722
Chorea, objective method for recording course of (squeezogram) (Cohen and Dancis), 564
Clinical Conferences:
Children's Hospital of Michigan: clinic on eczema vaccinatum, 115; rickets resistant to usual doses of vitamin D, 118; amebic dysentery, 122; pyloric stenosis, 123
Children's Hospital of Michigan: clinic on methemoglobinemia due to well water, 506; ratbite fever due to Streptobacillus moniliformis, 507; congenital obliteration of bile ducts, 509; meningitis due to Hemophilus influenzae, 511
Raymond Blank Memorial Hospital for Children, Des Moines, Iowa; clinic on retrolental fibroplasia, 370; anemia in premature infant, 371; premature infant weighing less than 1000 grams, 374; primary tuberculosis, 378; salicylate intoxication, 381
St. Louis Children's Hospital: clinic on ovarian tumor, 630; esophageal stenosis following ingestion of lye, 634, 637; tetanus, 646; growth failure associated with renal insufficiency, 651
University of Arkansas Hospital: clinic on tuberculous caseous pneumonia, 778; pertussis pneumonia, 781; cutaneous anthrax, 782; osteopetrosis, 783
Comments on Current Literature:
atopic eczema and bronchial asthma, 136
bone involvement in leucemia, 395
brucellosis, 668
Q fever, 260
treatment of Haverhill fever, 517
virus encephalitis, 795
Congenital cardiac disease:
complete atrioventricular block associated with patent interventricular septum (Massey), 492 prenatal auricular flutter (Stadler), 624
Congenital cardiac disease:—Cont'd truncus arteriosus communis persistens (Bischoff et al.), 411 vascular and cardiac anomalies, two unusual (Wurtz and Powell), 722 Congenital duodenal atresia (Leech and Pinkerton), 770 obliteration of bile ducts, clinic on (Children's Hospital of Michigan), 509
toxoplasmosis (Schwartzman et al.), 66
Convalescence, physical illness and: their meaning to the child (Langford), 242
Convalescent homes for children, standards for (New York Academy of Medicine), 251
Correspondence (Tallerman), 520
Cryptococcus neoformans and Candida albicans occurring as infective agents in an eight-year-old boy (Spicer et al.), 761
Cyst, pulmonary, congenital, tension type of (Walker et al.), 601
